Acceptable Uses Policy

Genesis Publishing Services & Genworld.com Hosting

Our customers are expected to use the Internet with respect, courtesy, and responsibility, giving due regard to the rights of other Internet users. Customers are expected to have a basic knowledge of how to use the Internet, including all skills required to maintain your account. Customers needing support with syntax involving HTML, CGI scripts, and Java will be done at a charge.

Genesis Publishing Services does provide users with Support and FAQ on File Transfer Protocol, HTML, CGI, and other relevant topics, except in the Q&A and forum area of web site.

Common sense is the best guide as to what is considered acceptable use of your Genesis Publishing Services account. The following are unacceptable uses:

Sites Not Welcome at Genesis Publishing Services

Genesis Publishing Services forbids websites with adult graphic content (softcore and/or hardcore), hatred messages including racism, sexism, or sites promoting one particular race, sex, or nationality as superior and/or another race, sex, or nationality as inferior. Websites found with child pornography will have their account disabled immediately.

Websites that promote activities that violate federal, state, local laws and/or violation of Canadian & U.S. export restrictions are also not welcome at Genesis Publishing Services. This include "warez" sites, sites promoting hacking, cracking programs, or website distribution of adult website passwords, also links to & from the sites.

Any site found on our servers which fit any of the descriptions above will be immediately disabled, removed, and are subject to a $150 clean-up and service fee upon termination. Genesis Publishing Services reserves the right to delete all of the files in the account and any other accounts maintained by any abuser of these policies.

Inappropriate Uses

Inappropriate uses include, but are not limited to activities such as unauthorized distribution or copying of copyrighted software (piracy or "warez"), violation of Canadian & U.S. export restrictions, harassment, fraud, trafficking in obscene material, drug dealing, and other illegal activities. Files such as Layer-3 music (MP3s), Emulators and ROMs protected by copyright laws are strictly forbidden. The use of bots such as Eggdrop or any other programs executed on the server through Telnet are also not allowed. We provide clients the service of providing the means for those respective clients to maintain a website, any other uses that are not related to maintaining a website such as those described above are inappropriate uses of Genesis Publishing Services.

Spamming, Trolling, and Mailbombing

Spamming is the sending of unsolicited e-mail, regardless of size, to persons the sender does not know. Using fictitious e-mail addresses @ is forbidden as well. Spamming also includes sending unsolicited advertisements to numerous email addresses or newsgroups and/or generating a significantly higher volume of outgoing email than a normal user). Trolling, the posting of outrageous messages to generate numerous responses is also not allowed. Mailbombing, the sending of multiple messages without significant new content to the same user and/or subscribing someone else to a mailing list without that person's permission, cross-posting articles to an excessive number of newsgroups, or attempting without authorization to enter into a secured computer system is strictly forbidden. Genesis Publishing Services reserves the right to determine what constitutes abuse of our services

Abuse of System Equipment

Misuse of system resources, including but not limited to employing posts or programs which consume excessive CPU time or storage space; permitting use of mail services, mail forwarding capabilities, POP accounts, or auto responders other than for the customer's own account; or resale of access to CGI scripts installed on our servers. Because of the high resource consumption of server-side Java, we do not allow server-side Java applications.

Client Responsibilities

Clients are responsible for frequently backing up their files on our system. Genesis Publishing Services cannot be held responsible for the deletion of users' files, whether intentional or unintentional. Backup of all user files are maintained but no guarantee is made about the ability to retrieve such files. Complaints about violators of our policies should be referred to admin@genesispublishing.ca. Each complaint will be investigated thoroughly.
